

The AFC is the lifeline for Canada's entertainment industry. We provide short-term emergency financial assistance to Canadian entertainment professionals.

You are eligible to apply if you have:

- earned more than half your income in the entertainment industry over the last 3 years
- earned the majority of your income from the entertainment industry, if over 65
- experienced an unforeseeable emergency that has led to a financial crisis
- made reasonable efforts to support yourself through other means

The AFC can help with costs like:

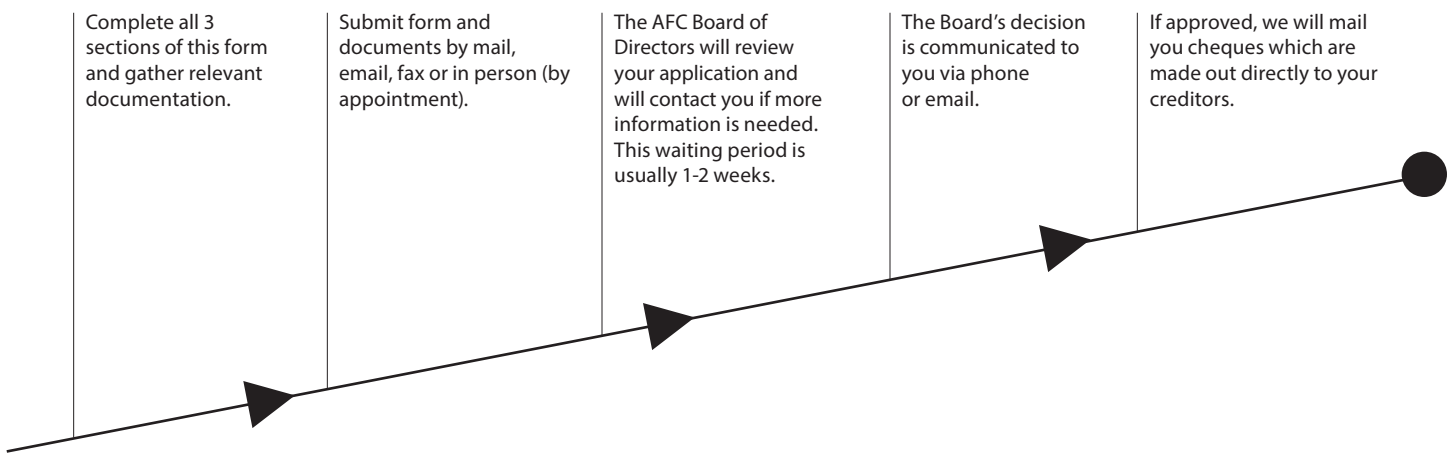

- Rent or mortgage
- Grocery costs
- Transportation costs
- Medical costs
- Emergency dental costs
- Utility costs
- Dues (1 year max.)
- Phone and internet ($150 max.)
- Childcare expenses

We cannot assist with:

- Life insurance
- Income tax
- Credit card or loan payments
- Legal fees
- Education costs
- Business costs
- Cable TV
- Agent fees and photos
- Union initiation fees

The Application Process

Application Checklist

Before you send your application, use the checklist below to ensure it is complete.

Required Documents:

Application form, with Sections 1, 2 and 3 completed (you do not need to send this page or Before You Start)

Complete résumé or work history going back at least 3 years

Contact your agent or union office to obtain a résumé or work history if you do not have one.
