

Theatre Junction Society Head Sound Technician

Job Description

Reports directly to the Production Manager or Technical Director and is one of three House Technicians for Theatre Junction GRAND.

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. General

- ▶ Coordination of all sound department activities
- ▶ Ensure sound equipment is set up properly and consistently with the show concept including communication systems and program sound
- ▶ Run audio during theatre shows, rehearsals, and live music concerts
- ▶ Supervise teams of casual technicians to ensure efficiency and accuracy
- ▶ Install and focus projectors and screens
- ▶ Program Qlab and Isadora control and playback systems
- ▶ Troubleshoot audio, video and communications equipment
- ▶ Inspect and maintain audio, video and communications equipment
- ▶ Maintain a comprehensive inventory of all equipment in the sound and video department
- ▶ Assist with set up and tear down of all show equipment
- ▶ Assist with the maintenance of all technical equipment
- ▶ Carry out all other tasks requested by the PM or TD.
- ▶ Report all accidents/incidents immediately to the PM/TD and Facility Operations Manager
- ▶ Abide by all company rules and bylaws as detailed in the Human Resources policies
- ▶ Ensure that internal communications are as efficient as possible and contribute to the overall effectiveness of the technical team
- ▶ Attend and participate in technical team meetings
- ▶ Cross departmental work is expected where appropriate

Qualifications:

- ▶ A minimum of two years experience in theatre and a minimum of two years as a Sound Technician
- ▶ Good understanding of both digital and analog consoles – experience with Digico is an asset.
- ▶ Good general understanding of all technical aspects of theatre and live shows
- ▶ Basic knowledge of video projectors and control systems (QLab/Isadora)
- ▶ Knowledge of carpentry is an asset
- ▶ Knowledge of lighting is an asset
- ▶ Experience in dance, live music and other performing arts is an asset
- ▶ Flexibility, autonomy, and leadership
- ▶ Must be a team player
- ▶ Ability to work well under pressure
- ▶ Good communication skills

Theatre Junction GRAND is a contemporary theatre company and a vibrant arts hub that provides space for visiting performing artists, speakers, corporate and private events, film series and more.

Theatre Junction GRAND works under a collective agreement with Local 212 of IATSE (International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees). All members of the technical crew must have membership or permit status.

Salary: Union Contract / Hourly

Date of Position Commencement: ASAP

Application Deadline: Application process will be ongoing until a suitable candidate is found

To apply to this position please submit a resume and cover letter to Karen Goddard Hermanson (Production Manager) at pm@theatrejunction.com

For more information on Theatre Junction GRAND, please visit our website: www.theatrejunction.com