

To Our Industry Friends

As members of our amazing Calgary arts community, we'd like to offer you a 30% discount off tickets to our Wednesday, November 25th performance of Lakmé.

Lakmé is the story of a Hindu Priestess who defies her father's wishes to be with the handsome British officer she's fallen deeply in love with.

Lakmé opened in Paris in 1883, a time when the Orient was a place of mystery and intrigue to Western audiences. It contains two of the most beautiful and recognizable arias in Opera, Flower Duet made popular by British Airways advertisements and the Bell Song.

The production stars Aline Kutan as Lakmé, Andrea Hill as Mallika, Cameron McPhail as Frederic and Valerian Ruminski as Nilakantha. Lakmé is conducted by Gordon Gerrard directed by Tom Diamond.
